2014CA000752 ALLSTATE INSURANCE COMAPNY v YAMILE PENDONES REYES

2014CA000792

MOR appeal from jury verdict in favor of Appellee in auto accident case. Issues are whether trial court erred in refusing to set aside verdict and for new trial on grounds of improper closing argument by appellee's counsel, excessive verdict and admission of a portion of deposition testimony. On cross-appeal Appellee argues that trial court improperly modified judgment.

CHARLIE COLEMAN v SANITATION DISTRICT NO. 1 OF NORTHERN KENTUCKY

Summary judgment and declaratory judgment action regarding rate increases by sanitation district. Coleman, et al. challenged the legality of the increases in light of new legislation resulting in KRS 220.135 and .035 which altered the process for approving such rate increases. Whether the new legislation applied to the contested rate increases; whether a rational relationship existed between the service charges and the benefit realized; whether the doctrine of laches precluded appellants' claims. Both parties request oral argument.
