Questions Presented:

Second-degree assault, fourth-degree assault, first-degree wanton endangerment and third-degree arson-20 years. Trial court erred in refusing to instruct the jury on voluntary intoxication under KRS 501.080(1). But because voluntary intoxication provides only a partial defense, the failure to include the instruction was reversible error only as to the second-degree assault conviction.

Questions Presented:

Criminal Procedure. Search and Seizure. Whether a police officer conducts an illegal search when he enters a person’s patio, while investigating individuals who were possibly about to engage in violent behavior, and then observes illegal drugs through an open back door. Whether these circumstances are governed by the “protective sweep” or “emergency aid” exceptions to warrantless searches. Whether the officer can obtain a belated consent to search the premises after police had already entered and observed illegal drugs.
